WARDEN MEMORIAL LIBRARY
MARTIN METHODIST COLLEGE
PULASKI, TENNESSEE

THE ALMA MATER: TO A SOPHOMORE

Let us greet our dear old college
Am I ever glad to be back at school.
With a hearty cheer!
I can't wait until basketball season starts.
For our hearts are ever loyal,
The Freshman have a good class this year.
Alma Mater dear.

We're the students of old Martin,
It sure is good to see our friends again.
College old and dear,
You know, you were my brothers teacher too.
With our faces all set onward,
Where will you transfer after graduation?
Voices ringing clear.
It's "quiet hours" and we are going to start giving demerits!

Broad the fields about us lying,
The campus sure looks good now.
Soft and blue the sky,
We won't need a raincoat today!
Sing, O sing aloud her praises,
I hope the Chorus travels a lot this year.
Raise the flag on high.
Wonder who will climb the statue this year?

Though our bonds can ne'er be broken,
I wish we could have roomed next door to each other again.
Sealed by friendship's tie,
They will probably transfer together next year.
Our true hearts will ever cherish
I will always cherish the friendships made at Martin.
Memories gone by.
And I will always remember our many good times.

Home Away From Home

Living on campus in homelike surroundings was a great experience, and we loved it. For Sophomores it meant a return to familiar haunts, as well as the renewal of friendships and, for some, even closer ties. It meant also a chance to exercise qualities of leadership and to take pride in their roles of "Big Sister" and "Big Brother" to incoming Freshmen. Thanks to these upperclassmen, the timid Frosh were able soon to dispel their loneliness, nostalgia, and all thoughts of Mom's home cooking. All fears gave way to affection--affection for the Martin College community and even for these walls of steel and brick and glass.

Criswell Hall, presided over by gracious Mrs. Woodard, became a veritable hive of feminine activity. The year was a procession of happy memories--midnight snacks, nights out and dates, letters from home and everywhere, gathering around the piano, playing the guitar and singing folk music. We remember also the special occasions like birthday parties and the spring showers for brides-to-be. We laughed, we played, and sometimes we studied.

In Upperman Hall for Sophomore men and in Tennessee Hall for Freshmen, activities centered about the usual masculine interests--group discussions, television, games and pranks. We had showers too! Our favorite prank was throwing offenders under the shower bath. Yes, we had our share of fun, and like the girls, we sometimes studied.

Altogether it has been a wonderful year, and now as the year closes we say good-bye to these dear halls and to our many friends at Martin College.

The Freshman population expanded ...

and the beanied uniform came into view,

while we found our new "home, sweet home."

As we went through the ups
and downs of registration ...

We found the "BIC" pens do
write everywhere.

Chow lines always formed rapidly . . .

Martin College

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Editors and Students:

As we begin our eighth year at Martin College, we have a feeling that 1968-1969 will be one of the best of all years. This is Martin's Ninety-Ninth year of continuous operation. Next year we will observe our Centennial. Would it not be wonderful if some future historian would be able to state factually that the finest Student Body of the first one hundred years was the group of freshmen and sophomores who attended Martin the years 1968-1969?

Now, this is no pipe dream. In this technological age, almost everything is possible - even landing men on the moon. Nor, is it impossible for the present Student Body to excel all the others. In this day of student freedom and student expression, if a few individuals look into the free heavens and see a vision of greatness, of excellence; they may be the catalytic agency of inspiration, dedication and achievement, which stirs each member of the student body to also reach for the highest free expression of his being.

We have heard of students being "incited to riot." We are advocating an "insurrection to reach" - reach for the highest, the best. Which, of course, calls to our memory the poetic lines learned long ago, when we were young:

The heights, by great men won and kept,
Were not attained by sudden flight.
But they, while their companions slept,
Were toiling upward in the night.

Since we must have a feeling of involvement, dedication, purpose - why, then, should it not be involvement in the cause of freedom for all; dedication to truth and beauty; and, the steadfast purpose to make the only life we will ever have count for the good of all mankind and eternity?

Sincerely, your friend,

W. C. Westenberger

Miss Martin College

Jan Wilburn

Miss Jan Wilburn from Leoma, Tennessee, reigned as the 1969 Miss Martin College, after being chosen winner from twenty contestants. Jan has maintained a high academic and social standard throughout her two years at Martin, therefore rightfully holding her title.

Standing with Queen Jan are Misses Gloria Burks and Judy Bruce who tied for first runner-up.

Miss Congeniality
CELIA EDWARDS

May Day Queen

Miss June Parman

May Day Queen of 1969, was Miss June Parman, from Nashville, Tennessee. June upheld her role of Queen throughout the year, but she also was captain of the Martin cheerleaders, Secretary of the Student Christian Association, a member of the Student Government Association, Sophomore Personality, and a member of many other clubs and campus organizations. June showed a most friendly attitude toward both the students and the Administration.

May Day King

Mr. Mike Frensley

May Day King of 1969 was Mr. Mike Frensley from Nashville, Tennessee. Mike was one who was most frequently seen on campus, for he was not only President of the Student Government Association, but also he was Co-captain of the Martin basketball team. Mike is a very well-rounded person. On campus he always offered a smiling face and friendship to everyone.

Freshman Faculty

The traditional welcome was extended, on the occasion of the Kiddie Party, to five new faculty members. Dressed in the designated childish clothes and equipped with toys and loads of lollipops and bubble gum, these otherwise sedate instructors seemed really to enjoy their enforced roles. Students had a chance to observe the lighter side of these learned professors. They are from left to right as follows. KNEELING: Mr. Louie Edmundson and Mr. John Yokley. STANDING: Mr. Marion Kimbrough, Mrs. James M. Held (with Mr. Held), and Mrs. Royce S. Hughes.

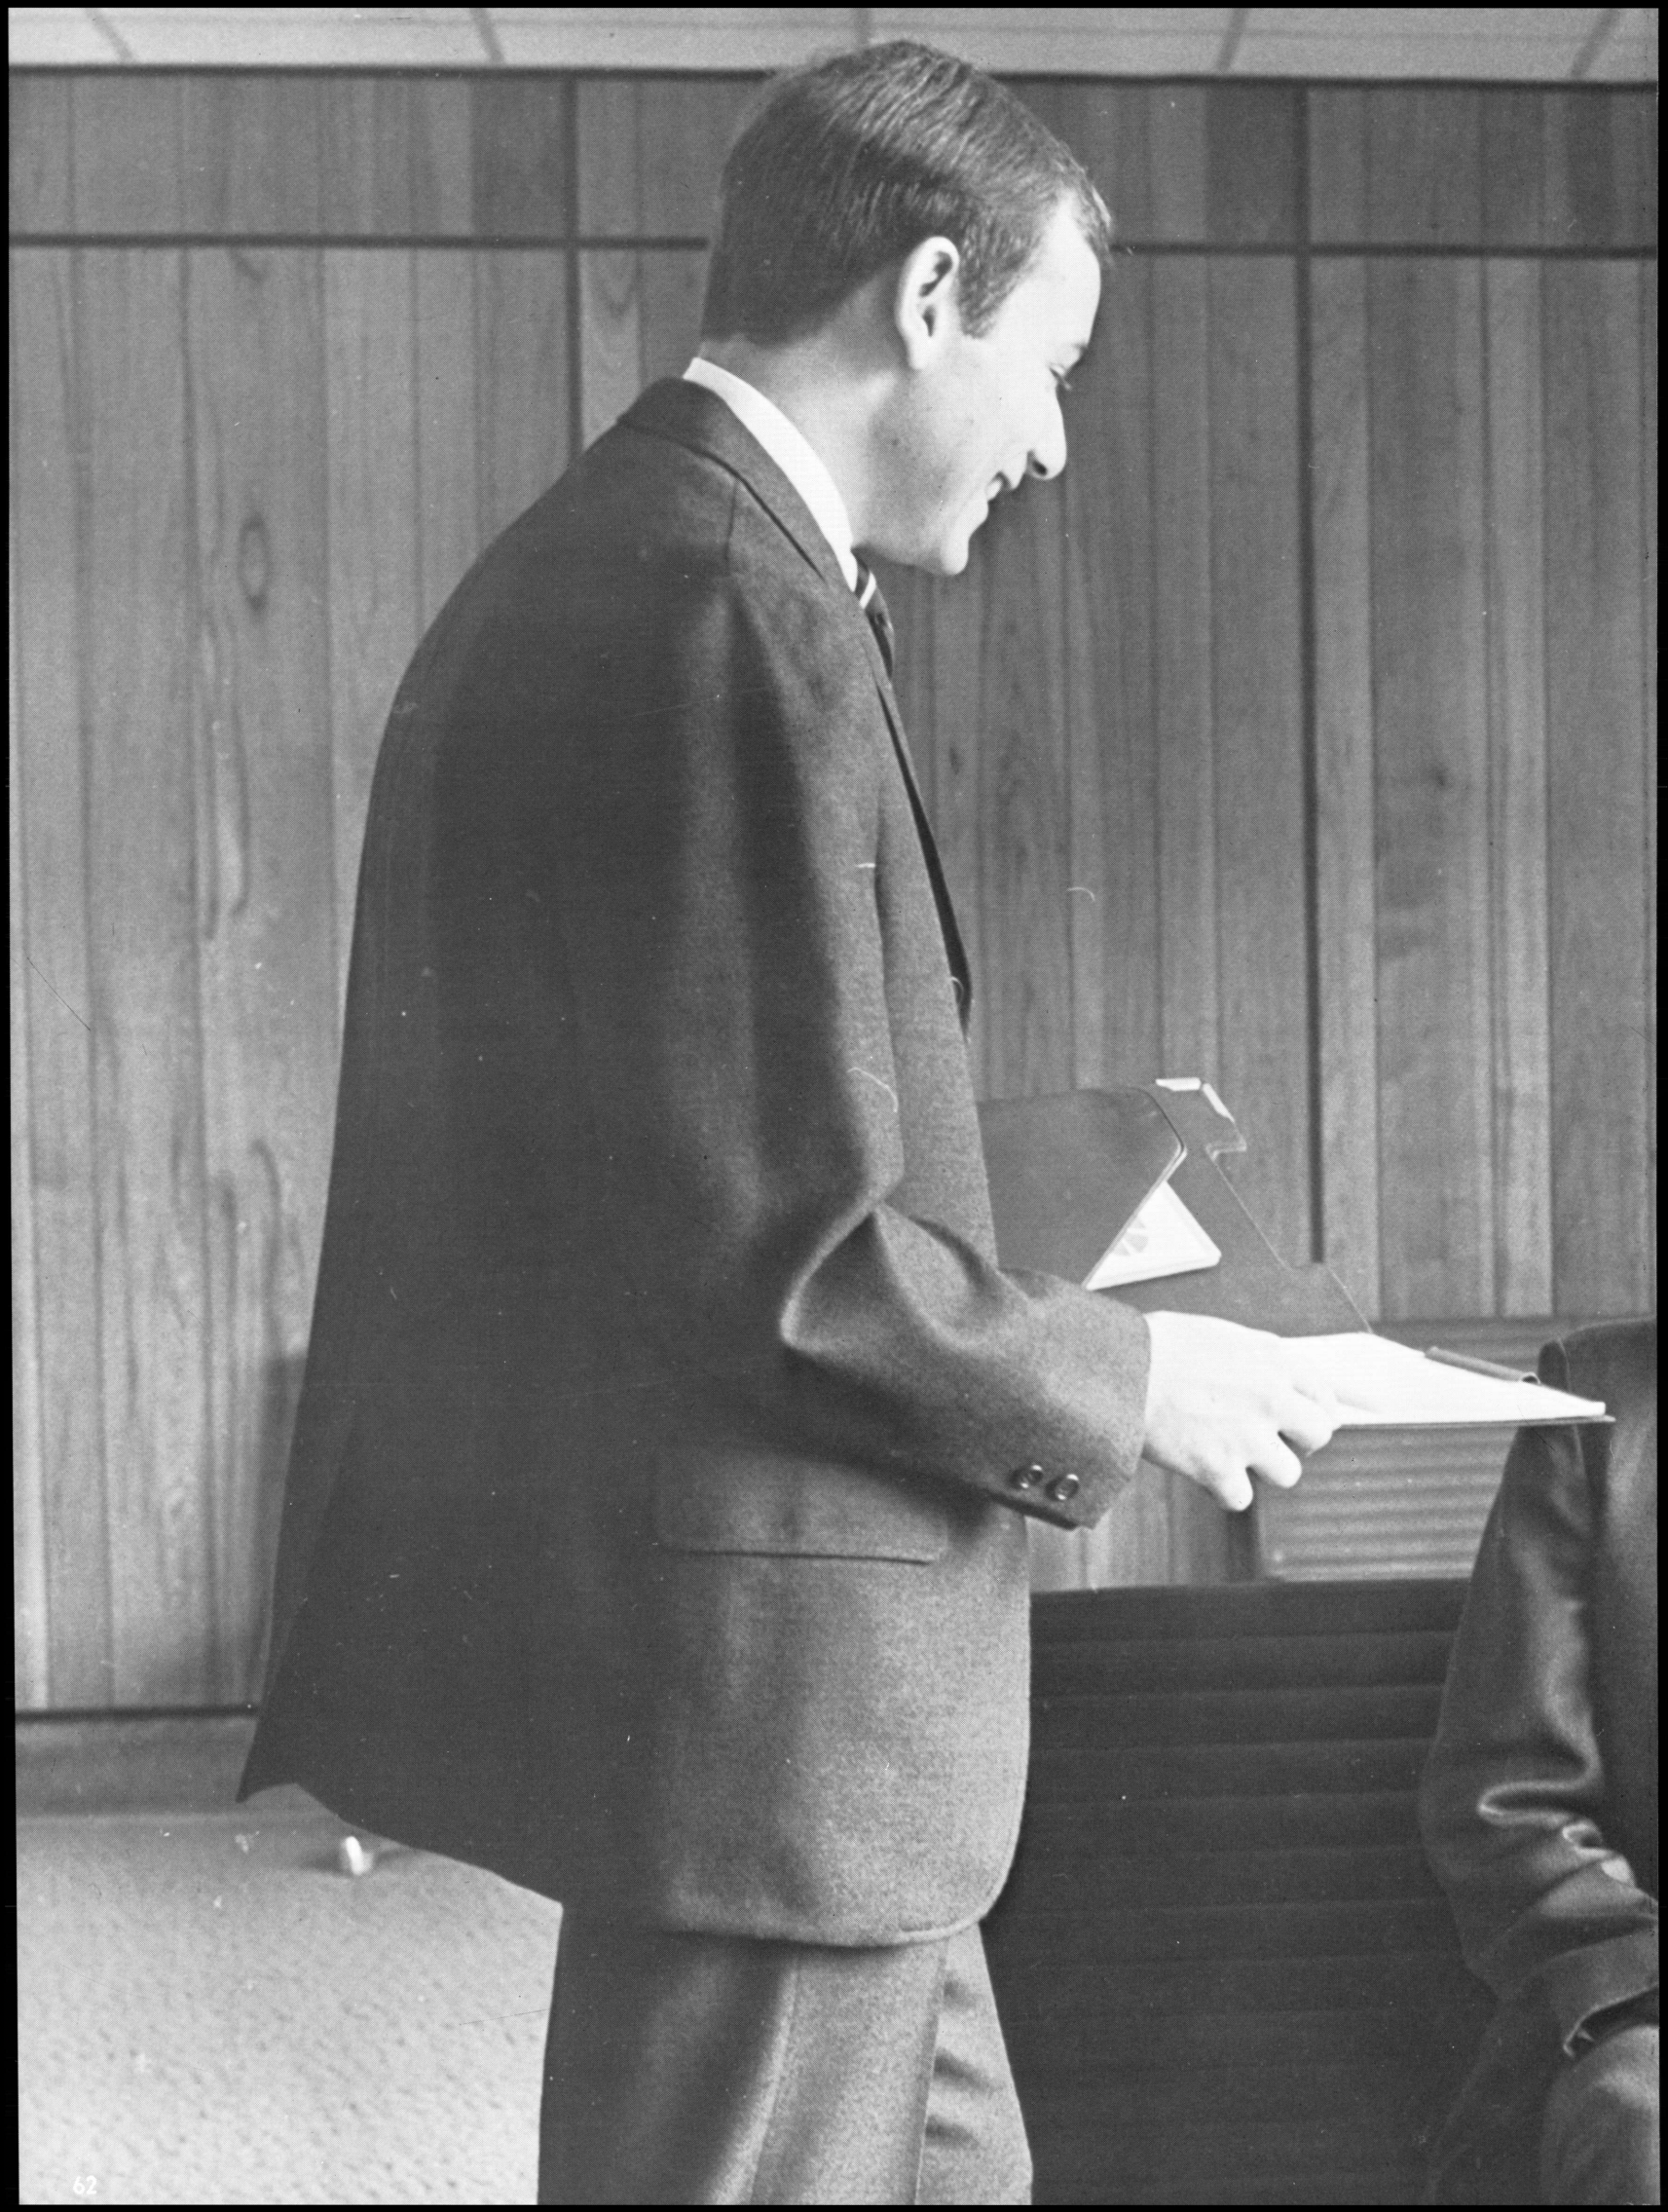

President Westenberg is an example of that rare combination of able administrator and scholarly teacher. Though occupied with the responsibilities of directing the College, he has never been known to turn away a student who had a genuine problem. Out of the richness of his experience and the love in his heart, he gives himself unselfishly to others. He strives to improve every aspect of the College, but he stresses particularly the importance of "Quality education in an atmosphere of Christian concern."

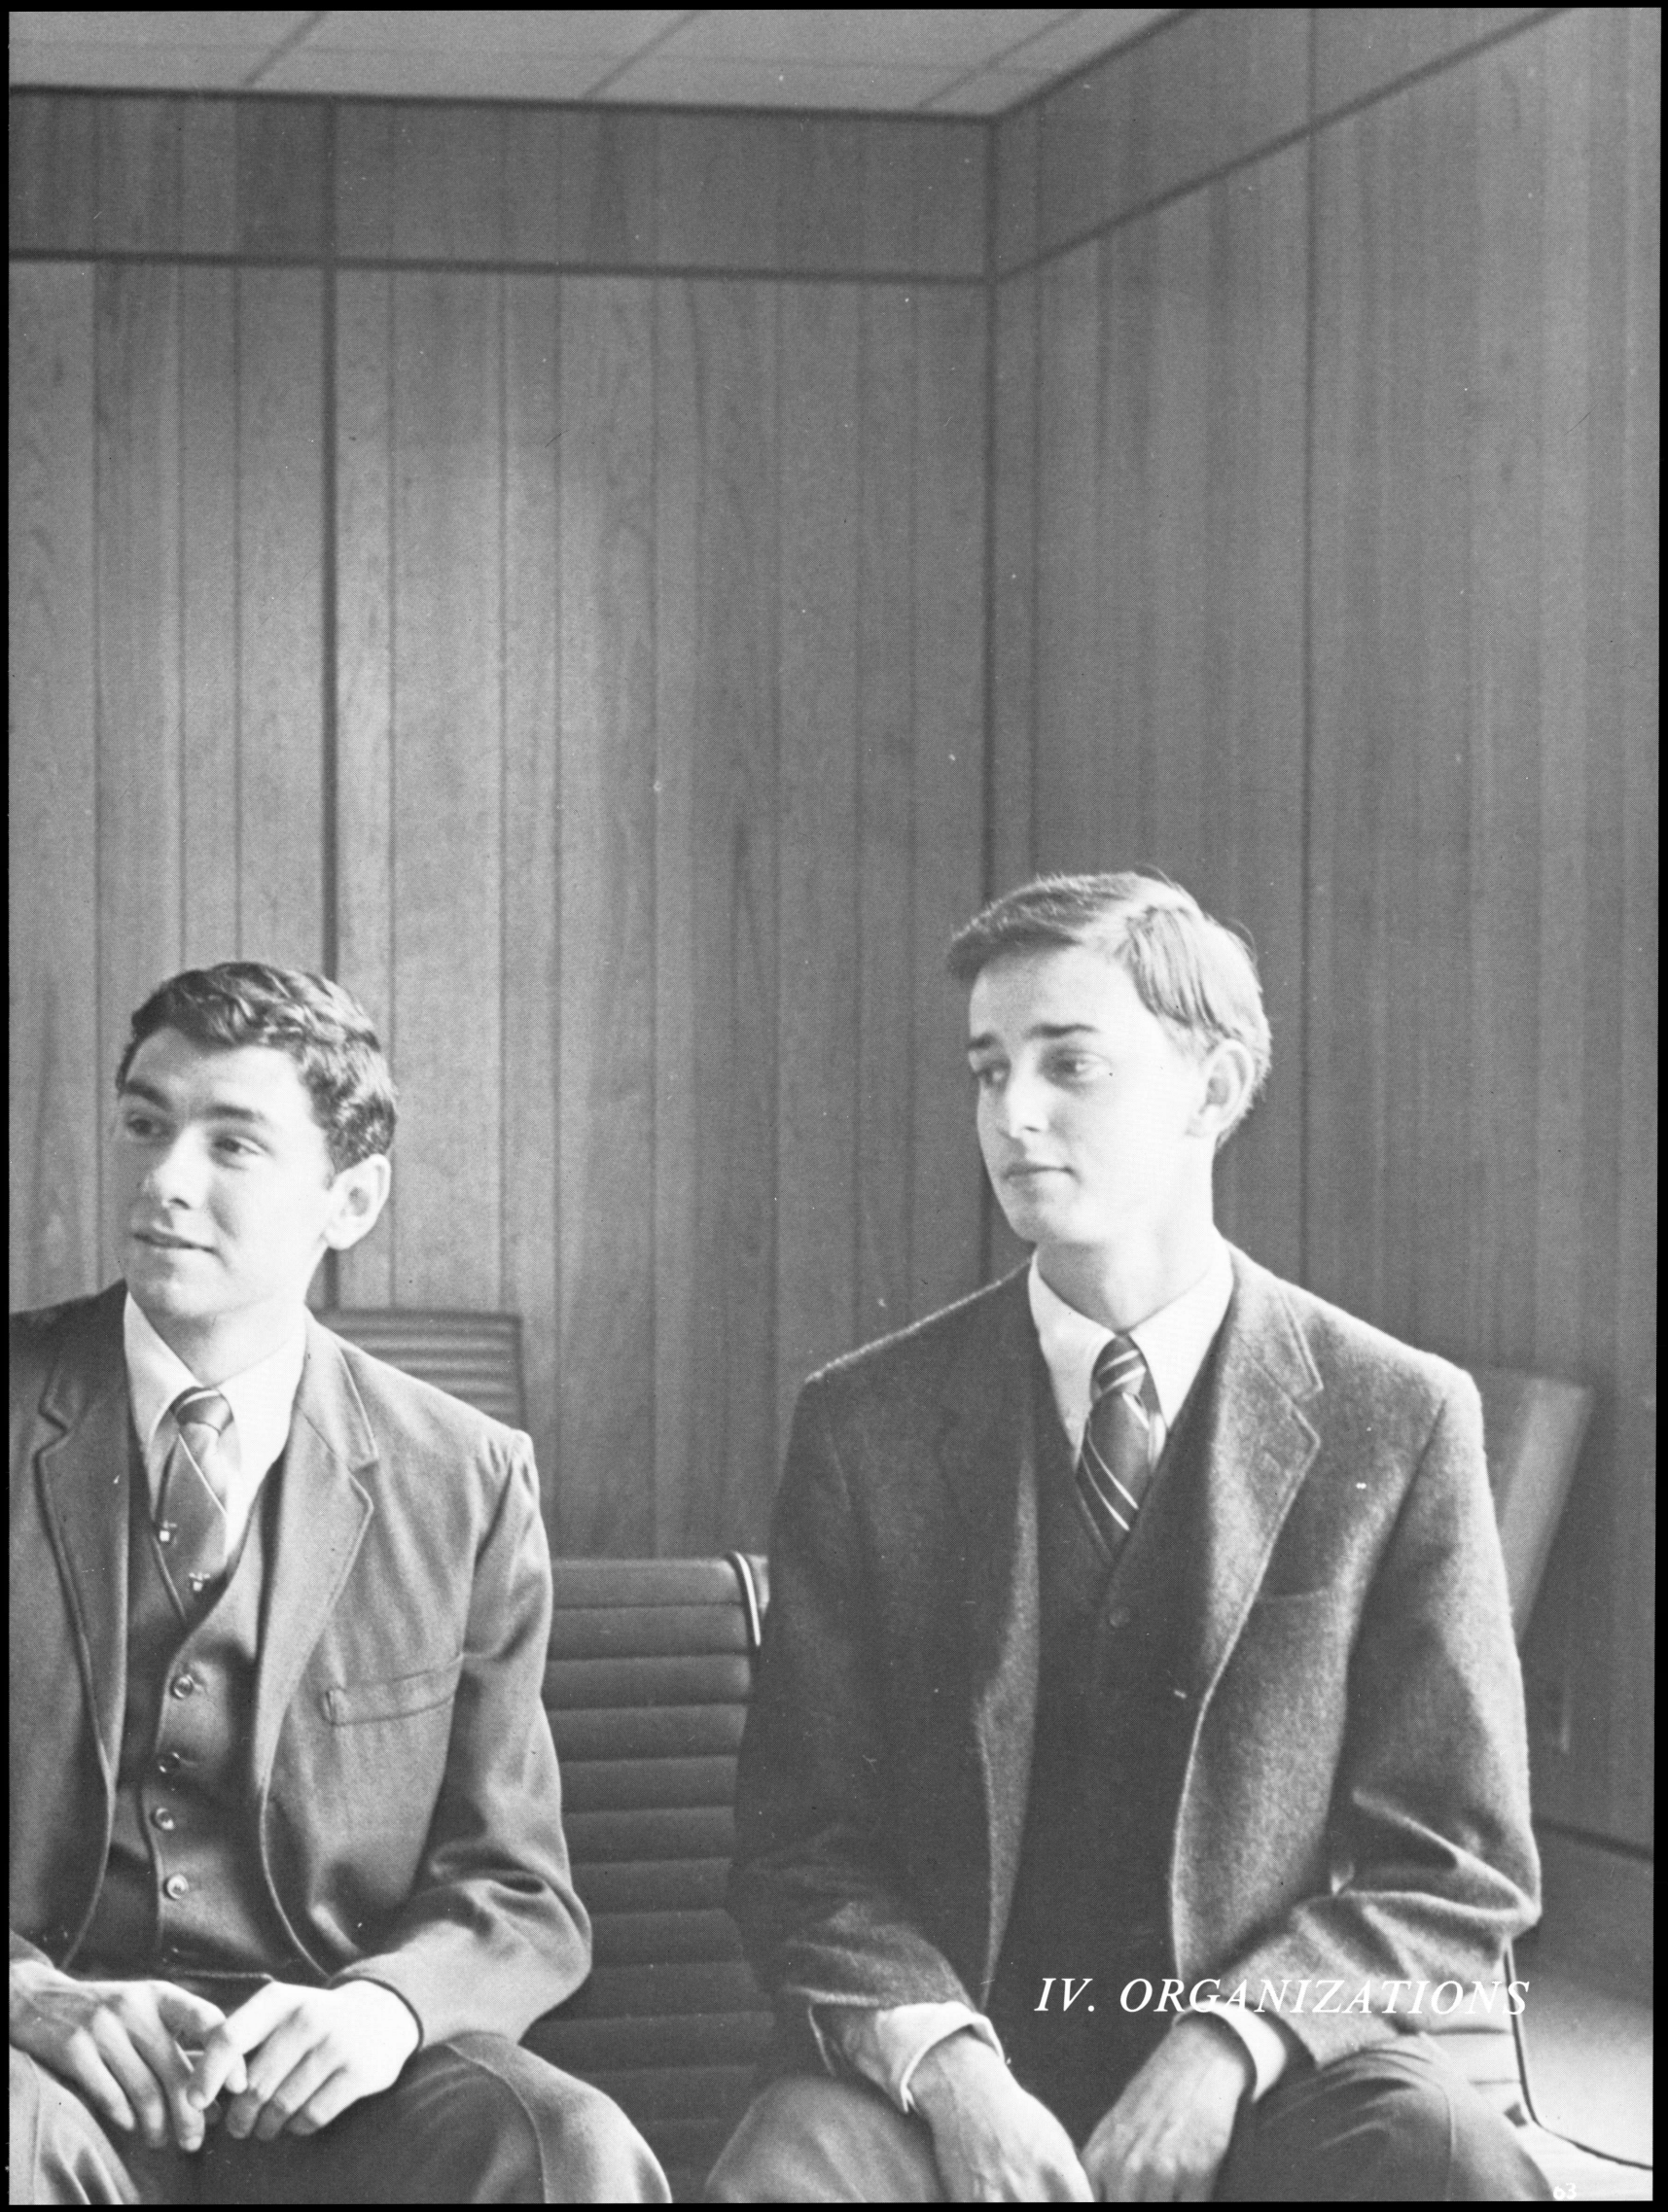

A very important person, who by preference remains somewhat in the background, but who nevertheless plays a principal role in addition to that of devoted wife, is Mrs. W. C. Westenberg, shown here with the President in their lovely home on West Flower Street. The atmosphere of their charming home reflects the varied interests and hobbies of this gracious lady. As Chairman of the Social Committee, Mrs. Westenberg is the official hostess of the College. Whether presiding at a social function - and there are several during the year - or whether meeting campus friends, she radiates a rare charm and a depth of sincerity that have endeared her to all of the College Community.

Student Christian Association

The Student Christian Association is the only interdenominational organization on campus which consists of every full-time student. To promote a Christian atmosphere on the Martin College campus and to instill a spirit of religious concern into the life of every student are our primary objectives. Activities promoting the above objectives are carried out through the Association's governing body, termed the S. C. A. Cabinet.

OFFICERS: John Phillips, President; June Parman, Secretary-Treasurer; Ronnie Lane, Vice President.

Day Student Government Association

COUNCIL: Roger Wall, President; George Jones, Vice President;
Cheryl Stewart, Secretary; Larry Bass, Treasurer.

OFFICERS: Celia Edwards, President; Diane Sundet, Vice President; Regina Bean, Secretary-Treasurer, SPONSOR: President W. C. Westenberg.

The Church-Related Vocations Club was formed for the purpose of cultivating Christian attitude on the College campus. Anyone who wishes to pursue his religious idealism in his future occupation is eligible for membership. Under the sponsorship of President Westenberg, this interdenominational club holds fellowship to put God's thoughts into action.

Martinaire Staff

Memories and fond recollections of the past play an important part in every college year. Keeping this in mind, the Martinaire Staff has made every effort to capture and keep alive for you the more significant events of the year gone by. With deepest appreciation for your cooperation and help, we the staff proudly present your yearbook, The Martinaire of 1969.

Editor: Greg Womack, Associate Editor: Annice O'Connor,
Advisor: Mrs. Lois Keys.

STAFF: Greg Womack, Faye Whittenberg, Annice O'Connor, Mrs. Keys, Patricia Taylor, Cliff Hargrove, Miller Robinson, Sharon Wilson, Ronnie Lane, Celia Edwards, Pat Holden.

Martin Indian Staff

The Martin Indian, after a complete facelifting job, finally made its appearance in mid November. The objective of the staff was to put a paper out every month and to cover all aspects of student activities. The paper served as an outlet for student problems, and a place where the students could air their grievances. Highlights of this year's paper were "The Personality Princess Award" and "The Athlete of the Month Award." These two awards were made each month by the paper staff to the people that we thought were most deserving. All in all, the newspaper came up to the Staff's expectations, and all members will agree that it was quite an experience.

Delta Psi Omega

Steven L. Barlar, President; Paul Tharpe. Not Pictured: Deborah Lentz, Vice-President.

Delta Psi Omega is an honorary National fraternity. It includes over two hundred fifty member institutions, of which Martin's Sigma chapter was the twenty-fifth chartered. Membership, the requirements of which are delineated by a permanent constitution, is conferred only after demonstrated excellence in the dramatic arts. Usually, therefore, the members of the fraternity are the leaders of the College's productions.

In order to become a member, one must meet the required academic and fraternity standards. During the fall semester three new members were initiated. They were Patricia White, Annice O'Connor, and Terry Whitt.

Dramatics Club

The Dramatics Club strives to promote a better understanding of play production and the work involved in presenting a play.

This year the Dramatics Club presented a one-act play, "The Long Christmas Dinner," by Thornton Wilder, as its first production. This play was performed for various church and school groups. A three-act play "The Curious Savage" was presented in the spring.

OFFICERS: Deborah Lentz, President; June Parman, Secretary; Patricia White, Treasurer.

Poetry Club

The Poetry Club takes an active part in the academic life on campus. Its members meet monthly to discuss various aspects of poetry, to read their own poems and popular poems of their choice. Through participation in the club's activities, students broaden their interest in poetry. This year the club also published a book of poems written by Martin students.

THE FACULTY and STAFF of MARTIN COLLEGE

Once again, our yearbook, (miracle of miracles) has been edited and published. Now, we proudly present it to you, the Faculty, the Administration, and the Students of Martin College. We wish the best the future has to offer to the Sophomore Class and an equally successful, productive year next year to the Freshmen.

Sincerely,

Annice O'Connor
Greg Womack
